

Lancaster Interagency Coordinating Council

Through the engagement of community partners, including early intervention, early childhood, and early learning partners, along with parents, advocates, government officials and community leaders, the Lancaster Interagency Coordinating Council (LICC) works to ensure that young children have access to supports, services and resources that help them develop and grow to reach their fullest potential.

Over 40 Community Partners, to include:

- Early Intervention – Infant/Toddler & Pre School
- Early Intervention Technical Assistance
- Bureau of Early Intervention Services/OCDEL
- Child Care Consultants/Early Learning Resource Centers
- Children & Youth Agency
- Community Action Partnership
 - Parents as Teachers
 - Head Start
- Early Head Start
- Early Intervention Providers
- Include Me
- Joining Forces for Children/Penn Medicine
- Parents of Children in Early Intervention
- Right to Education Network
- The Arc of Lancaster Lebanon
- And others

With Reports Outs:

- OCDEL
- Special Education Advisory Board
- Pennsylvania Community Inclusion for All
- Early Intervention & Early Childhood & Learning Partners
- And more!

Subcommittees:

- Child Find
- Family Engagement
- Rapid Response
- Advocacy/Public Policy
- Professional Development

Meet the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 1:00-3:00 p.m. Meetings are currently held via Zoom.

Contact Jan Baily, Lancaster County Early Intervention at 717.399.7327 or jbaily@co.lancaster.pa.us to learn more.